Kookaburra Yoga Teacher Training
Deferment, Expulsion, Cancellation & Refund Policies

Introduction

Kookaburra Yoga is dedicated to providing high-quality teacher training programs in a supportive and professional learning environment. This policy outlines key aspects regarding deferment, expulsion, and cancellation/refund procedures for teacher training courses.

Deferment of Training

We understand that unforeseen circumstances may arise, preventing a student from completing their training within the scheduled timeframe. Students may request a deferment under the following conditions:

- Deferment is only granted in cases of extenuating circumstances such as illness, injury, family emergencies, or other significant personal matters.
- Requests must be submitted in writing to Kookaburra Yoga management, outlining the reason for deferment and any supporting documentation.
- Approval of deferment is at the discretion of Kookaburra Yoga management.
- If approved, students may be allowed to transfer their enrolment to a future training intake within a specified period (e.g., within 12 months), subject to availability.
- Additional fees may apply if there are changes in course costs or structure.

Expulsion Policy

Students are expected to adhere to the Student and Staff Code of Conduct. Any breach of this code may result in disciplinary action, including expulsion from the training program. Grounds for expulsion include but are not limited to:

- Repeated disruptive or inappropriate behaviour in the training environment.
- Harassment, discrimination, or any form of misconduct towards teachers, staff, or fellow students.

- Attending training under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
- Engaging in dishonest, fraudulent, or unethical behaviour that impacts the integrity of the program.
- Failure to adhere to health and safety protocols.

Expulsion decisions will be made by Kookaburra Yoga management following a fair and thorough review of the situation. No refunds will be issued in cases of expulsion.

Cancellation and Refund Policy

Each teacher training program has its own specific cancellation and refund policy. These policies are clearly stated on the individual teacher training pages on our website and are also communicated to students via email in advance of the training. Additionally, they are included in the prospectus and course outline document provided to prospective and enrolled students.

General refund and cancellation guidelines include:

- Deposits are non-refundable unless otherwise stated.
- Partial refunds may be available based on the time of cancellation and the terms outlined in the specific training's policy.
- Transfers to future training intakes may be considered on a case-by-case basis.

For any queries regarding cancellations, refunds, or deferments, students should contact Kookaburra Yoga management directly.

Policy Review

This policy is subject to periodic review to ensure it aligns with best practices and the evolving needs of our teacher training programs.
